

Nelson and District Arts Council Member Awards Information

The Nelson and District Art Council (NDAC) has a limited amount of funding available to assist individuals and group members with artistic endeavours which add to the cultural life of Nelson and the surrounding area.

Please note the following stipulations:

1. Applicants must live in the NDAC area which extends from South Slokan to Queens Bay (including Proctor) and south to Apex.
2. Awards for individuals are between $50.00 - $100.00.
3. Awards for member groups are between $100.00 - $200.00.
4. Awards are granted for cultural and artistic endeavours. (In the past, awards have assisted with registration fees for workshops, exhibit expenses, production costs, travels costs to out-of-town events or competitions, recordings and tour expenses, etc.)
5. Grants are available to members of NDAC.
6. Other individuals or groups in the community may apply for an award by becoming a member of the NDAC. Annual individual membership fees are $10.00, and group membership fees are $25.00. Membership applications must be submitted with the Award application.
7. Applications are evaluated at monthly Board meetings, usually the third Thursday of each month.
8. Notification of awards will be after the above meeting times.
